

Bandito

Who can be the quickest to find the bank robbers? Exciting robber hunt for 2 or more watchful observers from 5 to 99 years.

Story

"Hands up!" the bank robbers cry as they ride at full gallop into the western town. In front of the bank, they stop their horses and quickly enter the building. It does not take long. The nervous bank clerk fills all their big bags with the money. As quickly as they came, the robbers leave the town unhindered, because the sheriff and his deputies did not notice the incident. The sheriff has so much work to do at the moment, that he urgently needs your help.

In the town the sheriff hangs up posters of the bank robbers. If you help him to find two of the escaped bandits, you can become sheriff yourself.

Game type: family game
Players: 2 or more players from 5 to 99 years
Contents: 24 cards, 1 "Wanted" picture frame, 1 sheriff's star, 5 deputy stars, 1 set of playing instructions
Author: Reiner Knizia
Illustrations: Barbara Kinzebach

Preparation

Shuffle all the cards and place them in the middle of the table. There is a picture of a cowboy on each side of the cards and there are two pictures of each cowboy, not necessarily on the same card.

Take a card and place it in the "Wanted" picture frame within sight of all players.

The cowboy in the frame is the bank robber who has to be found during this round.

Aim of the game

All players try simultaneously to find the card that shows the same cowboy as the card in the "Wanted" picture frame.

How to play

As soon as the cowboy card is placed in the "Wanted" picture frame, all players try to find the corresponding cowboy from the cards in the middle of the table. Each player may only use one hand, the other hand remains under the table. The player who finds the corresponding card is made a deputy and may fix a deputy's star onto his clothes.

To continue, take the cowboy card out of the "Wanted" picture and put this card together with the found card back in the middle of the table. Shuffle the cards again and draw a new one to insert in the "Wanted" picture frame. Then you start the next search ...

End of the game

If a deputy finds a second correct cowboy, he receives the sheriff's star and wins the game.

Good luck searching for the bank robbers!
